

22nd Annual Meeting of the Canadian Geriatrics Society
Aging and Society: Taking Charge of the Future
Montreal Hilton Bonaventure, Montreal, QC
October 25-27, 2002

Friday, October 25, 2002
Canadian Geriatrics Society /
Canadian Association of Gerontology
Continuing Medical Education
(CGS/CAG CME day)

Possible topics will include:

- Osteoporosis "Old Bones and Joints"
- Mild Cognitive Impairment
- The "New" Dementias
- Cardiovascular "The Burden of Evidence-Based Medicine"
- Incontinence
- Diabetes
- Stroke
- Andropause
- Treating the Oldest Old

Saturday, October 26, 2002
CGS Scientific and Business Meeting

The day will begin with a keynote address by Dr. Tom Perls, Director, New England Centenarian Study, Harvard Medical School. There will be a special joint Canadian Institute on Aging /CGS/CAG/ Canadian Gerontologic Nursing Association symposium followed by research scientific paper presentations and the Post-Graduate and Resident / Medical Fellow poster competition. The day will also include the CGS Annual Business Meeting (open to members only). The day will end with the Annual CGS Reception and Dinner.

Sunday, October 27, 2002
CGS Scientific Meeting (continued)

This morning will be devoted to the Kaufman Prize Competition with research papers presented by Students, Residents and Fellows, followed by a discussion.

For more information, please contact:

Linda O'Rourke, Executive Director
CGS Secretariat
824 Meath Street, Ottawa, ON K1Z 6E8
Telephone: (613) 728-9347
Fax: (613) 728-8913
E-Mail: lorourke@cagacg.ca

The CGS is an organization of physicians committed to improving the health, independence and care of older people through the promotion of excellence in clinical care, education and research.

There are three Membership Categories: Ordinary $50; Associate (resident/fellow) $25; and Life/Honorary no charge. Membership enquiries should be sent to: mlgrimes@cagacg.ca